- Used class time efficiently and aided us in any way they could, was very kind and approachable. A joy to have as a TA
- This is the second section where I have had the pleasure of having Chris as my TA, and I can confidently say that Chris is the reason I survived my calculus requirements. Their ability to clarify the material and provide easier methods of solving a problem that the professor did not go over was very helpful in contributing to my understanding of the material. Chris is extremely approachable, friendly, and is truly passionate about not only calculus, but also the students, which is a combination of characteristics that I believe is what makes Chris so incredible at their job.
- Chris is an amazing TA! Each discussion with them was very effective and enjoyable. They made going to class exciting because of their passion for the topic. Their teaching method is one I hope to find in all of my TAs/professors! Not only were they very knowledgeable about each and every topic, but they also made it fun to learn! Their positive attitude really encouraged me to keep up with my studies. Chris is a very inspiring person and I hope to have them as my TA again in the future!
- very understanding
